In this article, we'd like to walk you through the process of what to do between the time you arrive at the airport and board your plane. We highly recommend arriving at the airport at least 90 minutes before your (flew – flying – flight) departs to ensure that you have enough time to check-in. If you choose to check-in online or use the self-service kiosks, you (were – are - will be) presented with the opportunity to download your boarding pass, print it out on your printer, or have it sent to you via email.

If you're unsure about what you can (book – pack – check) in your bag, be sure to read the luggage policy and that your luggage is within the required size and weight restrictions. At the airport security you will be required to pass your hand luggage through an X-ray machine (when – who - where) it will be checked for dangerous goods. You will also be required to pass through a metal detector. Once you're on the other side of the scan, make sure to be at the gates (in – on – at) time. If you have some time to kill, you can visit a restaurant or airport lounge. Once you get to the aircraft you will be greeted by one of the (friend – friendly – friendship) cabin crew who will then direct you to your allocated seat.

2° Fill in the blanks with 8 words from the list below. There are 2 extra ones (3 mks) :

royal - traffic - boring - views - popular - buildings - which - underground

London is a city with many faces. This capital city of England has more than 50 ethnic communities of 10,000 or more people. London has a lot of important , including world-famous museums, theatres, concert halls, airports, stations and palaces. There are places you must see when you are in the city, like Big Ben, the London Eye and the Tower Bridge. You can't forget about Buckingham Palace, where the Queen and the family live. Another iconic place is Piccadilly Circus is the most famous road intersection in the world. Do you want to have some fun? Visit the Madame Tussaud's wax museum where you can find wax figures of many artists and people. What can Londoners do outside when the weather is fine? 30% of the city is green areas including Hyde Park where you can walk around in about 90 minutes or take a boat out on the water. Life in London is not always easy, but it is never Dr. Johnson was right: « When a man is tired of London, he is tired of life. »

3° Supply the right tense or form of the bracketed words (3.5 mks) :

Although I thought it wouldn't be much fun to go on a trip with a parent, mum convinced me that we would have a good time if I would spend a one-week vacation with her in Paris. We live in London so we (must not) fly. We took the Eurostar, which is a high-speed train that takes about two hours to get there. Once we were in Paris, we went on a (sightsee) tour to explore the must-visit sites including going to the Louvre Museum to see Leonardo Da Vinci's painting called the Mona Lisa. It was actually quite (excitement) to see such a painting in real life. The highlight of the trip was when we visited the Eiffel Tower. This famous monument is 324 meters high and has three floors, which you can get to by lift. I wanted to go up to the top floor, but mum refused. She's afraid of heights, and said she couldn't manage anything (high) than the first floor. I was a bit (disappointment) A friend had been all the way to the top and he'd told me that the view was amazing, but I (try) not to show mum that I minded. In any case, the view from the (two) floor was pretty spectacular.
