

I. READING COMPREHENSION : (8 marks)

Read the text then answer the questions.

- ① Milton Hershey invented the chocolate bar 100 years ago. He grew up on a farm in Pennsylvania. From childhood, Milton was ambitious and competitive. These qualities helped him to achieve his dreams.
- ② Milton Hershey trained to become a printer. He first worked for a small newspaper and then he decided that printing was not the right profession for him. So, he got a job at a candy factory. There, he learned how to make caramels. Then, he decided to start his little chocolate business in New York and earned much money.
- ③ With the money he saved, Hershey moved back to his parents' farm where he experimented with all sorts of chocolate. In 1908, he invented "The Hershey Milk Chocolate". Millions of people everywhere tasted the chocolate and enjoyed it. "I strongly believe in hard work and the future is for those who believe in the beauty of their dreams", he said.
